

Master of Science in Accountancy

Certificate Program in

Auditing

The certificate programs at Benedictine University are an excellent way to gain a competitive edge in your profession. Designed to meet the growing need for effective, cutting-edge skills, our programs are always being updated to reflect current job market needs. Students seeking a certificate are provided an expedited admissions process. Students are required to submit a certificate program application as well as proof of baccalaureate degree conferral. Degree-seeking students are required to submit additional documents including but not limited to official transcripts from all colleges/universities previously attended.

Certificate programs in the Master of Science in Accountancy (M.S.A.) program focus on providing students with knowledge specific to auditing and forensic accounting. The program is taught by acknowledged experts in the field of accounting. The program provides students with the professional skills, knowledge and competencies necessary to be successful, professional accountants in today's complex business environment. All students entering into a certificate program must schedule an advising appointment with the M.S.A. program director by calling (630) 829-6205.

Program Overview

The certificate in Auditing is for those students interested in sitting for the Certified Public Accountant exam or Certified Internal Auditor exam. Four courses, which may be taken in any order, are required for completion of the certificate in Auditing. The courses are:

MBA 614 Auditing and Assurance I (4)

MBA 615 Auditing and Assurance II (4)

MBA 616 Information System Auditing (4)

MBA 617 Internal Auditing (4)

Benedictine University is located in Lisle, Illinois, just 25 miles west of Chicago. Founded in 1887 by the Benedictine Monks of St. Procopius Abbey, the University offers 49 traditional undergraduate majors, seven adult undergraduate majors, 13 graduate programs, 33 graduate certificate programs and four doctorate programs. Benedictine has consistently been named one of the top schools in the Midwest Region and ranked sixth in Illinois for Racial Diversity by U.S. News & World Report® for 2010. For more information, call the Enrollment Center at (630) 829-6300, e-mail admissions@ben.edu or visit www.ben.edu.

