

Pre-Select Announcement:
BenU students pursuing the DPD may qualify for early admission into the BenU MS-Dietetic Internship Program through Pre-Select Process.

Qualifications:

All applicants must meet or exceed the following minimum acceptance criteria to be considered for internship pre-select.

- ▶ Overall GPA of 3.0 on 4.0 scale
- ▶ DPD GPA of 3.2 on 4.0 scale

BenU students in the DPD program can apply for Pre-Select up to 12 months prior to his/her/their Bachelor's degree graduation. Students who completed a US DPD Verification elsewhere, and who are already in pursuit of the MS in Nutrition and Dietetics at BenU, are also eligible for Pre-Select.

Interested students must submit TWO separate applications: (1) BenU Graduate School Application for MS ND and (2) BenU DI Application.

Required: Apply to BenU Graduate School for acceptance into the MS in Nutrition and Dietetics degree program. Refer to the BenU Graduate School application website for details. You can utilize the same references for both applications.

Required application materials for the Dietetic Internship program (Track A) application:

1. Pre-Select Application Form – link can be found on webpage under DI match
2. Personal Statement
3. All college transcripts (official and sealed or sent directly)
4. DPD Verification Statement or Declaration of Intent Form (from your DPD program Director)
5. Provide letters of reference, using the DI Reference Form (2)

Refer to the program website for details on application procedures.

The DI Pre-Select Application process is twice a year:
Spring Due Date: May 15
Fall Due Date: December 1

Questions?

Contact BenU DI Director: Dr. Millikan at jmillikan@ben.edu