On your 2025-2026 FAFSA, you, your spouse (if applicable), and/or your parent/contributor(s) provided an amount under the "Grant/Scholarship/AmeriCorps Benefits reported as Income to the IRS", under the Student Financial Tax Information and/or Parent Financial Tax Information sections.

Amount of College Grants, Scholarships, or AmeriCorps Benefits Reported as Income to the IRS

The student paid taxes on these grants, scholarships, or benefits. These usually apply to those completing their FAFSA form again, not to first-time applicants. If married, include the amount the student's spouse received.

Our office is required to verify the 2023 Grant/Scholarship/AmeriCorps Benefits reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Most students and/or contributors do not have taxable grants and scholarships, to ensure the accuracy of these responses, you and/or your contributor(s) need to review the 2025-2026 FAFSA to confirm the amounts entered. The purpose of this form is to confirm that you received Grant/Scholarships aid in excess for the 2023 tax year and were required to report it as taxable income.

One of the following Certification and Signature must be selected:
