

This worksheet allows a student and family to understand their estimated out-of-pocket expenses at Benedictine University for the 2023-2024 academic year based on costs of living with parent (commuting) or living on campus (resident).

Please use your 2023-2024 Financial Aid Offer communication to assist you in determining your estimated out-of-pocket cost.

Estimated Out-of-Pocket Cost 2023-2024 Academic Year
Expenses are billed by Business Office	Living with Parent	Living on Campus
Tuition is for two semesters - Fall and Spring. Based on full-time enrollment (12-18 credit hours per semester).	$32,700	$32,700
Student Service Fees Required to every student. Please note there may be additional fees for specific courses.	$ 1,590	$ 1,590
Housing and Meal Plan is based on a student's selections. Estimated cost is based on a double occupancy dormitory room and meal plan.		$10,600
Estimated Cost of Expenses	$34,290	$44,890

Annual Offered Financial Aid
Benedictine Awards and/or Scholarships	$	$
Grants (Federal/State)	$	$
Total of Gift Awards	$	$
Student Direct Loans (Subsidized and/or Unsubsidized) are in offered status until you choose to accept those loans. To accept loans an Entrance counseling and Master Promissory Note must be completed prior to disbursement. Freshmen Level Loan amount stated on form	$5,500	$5,500

Annual Out of Pocket
Estimated Annual Billed Expenses	$34,290	$44,890
Gift Awards	-$	-$
Loan Amount, if applying	-$	-$
Total estimated out-of-pocket cost For the academic year	$	$

Note:

Tuition is due 7 days after the 1st day of the semester.

The most efficient and timely way to make a payment to your account is to pay online at MyBenU. Additional payment options can be found on webpage Business Office under "Payment Options."